SUBJECT NO. 11.

Disposal of Tangadi bark in Hiduvali lands.

Mr. Narayana Reddi, Pavagada Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Raiyats experience great difficulty in removing the tangadi bark out of their lands, owing to the several restrictions imposed in this behalf. These restrictions may be removed.

Note.—Not discussed owing to the absence of the proposer.

PROTECTION—(JUDICIAL).

(Nos. 12 to 14.)

SUBJECT NO. 12.

Holding a Judicial Conference once in three years.

Mr. H. Krishna Sastri, Krishnarajpet Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—A number of questions affecting the rights and privileges and difficulties of the litigant public and the difficulties of the judges arise every now and then. To discuss such important questions and submit proposals to facilitate justice, a Judicial Conference may be held at least once in three years.

Note.—Not discussed owing to the absence of the proposer.

SUBJECT NO. 13.

Raising the jurisdiction of Munsiffs.

Mr. C. Channakesaviah, Chitaldrug Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The jurisdiction of Munsiffs may be raised from Rs. 2,500 to Rs. 5,000 or a little less.
